Connections – July/August 2026 issue deadline

News, articles and other items to be included in the July/August 2026 double issue of Connections should be sent by email to the editor Claire Booth (clairehbooth@hotmail.com) no later than Wednesday, 17th June 2026.

Items should ideally be no more than 1 page in length (about 450 words) and definitely no longer than 2 pages.

Connections is published in digital format ten times a year and emailed to subscribers. You are also able to view it on the church website. If you want it emailed to you, please contact Kevin Bodsworth at the Church Office: office@bagintonroadurc.org.uk.

Thanks, Claire

From the Werretts

Following several conversations with the Elders, I have decided that I will be stepping down as Church Leader at the AGM, with my final service being on 5th July.

This has not been an easy decision, but after much reflection I feel it is the right time. Over the past year, I have tried to serve the Church faithfully within the role the Elders asked me to fulfil; however, the ongoing criticism regarding hymn choices, sermon themes and service content has become quite discouraging. I value constructive feedback and understand that not everyone will always agree, but persistent negativity has made it increasingly difficult to continue with confidence and joy in the role.

On Sunday 17th May, as I said during the service, I asked the choir to choose the hymns, as I no longer felt fully comfortable making those decisions myself. When you reach a point where you feel uncertain about choosing hymns or leading Communion, it feels like a sign that it may be time to step aside.

A further challenge is the practical reality of only being able to come once a month while living in Norfolk. I often feel I cannot provide the level of support the Church needs, and it is difficult to be fully part of church life when I am not regularly present.

I know there will be different feelings about my decision. Some may be pleased, while others will have appreciated the variety of hymns, teaching and activities brought over the past 12 months. Whatever the case, I remain grateful to God for the opportunity to have served.

I sincerely wish the Church, Sue and the Elders every blessing for the future, and I will continue to pray for the Church and its ministry.

Simon

Men's Breakfast

The next Men's Breakfast will take place on Saturday 6th June at 10.00am
at The Phantom Coach, Fletchamstead Highway CV4 7BA.

Please sign the list at the back of church if you intend to take part.

Special Cause for May, June and July - Brain Tumour Research

Our appeal for the UHCW Charity raised £276, so thank you for your donations.

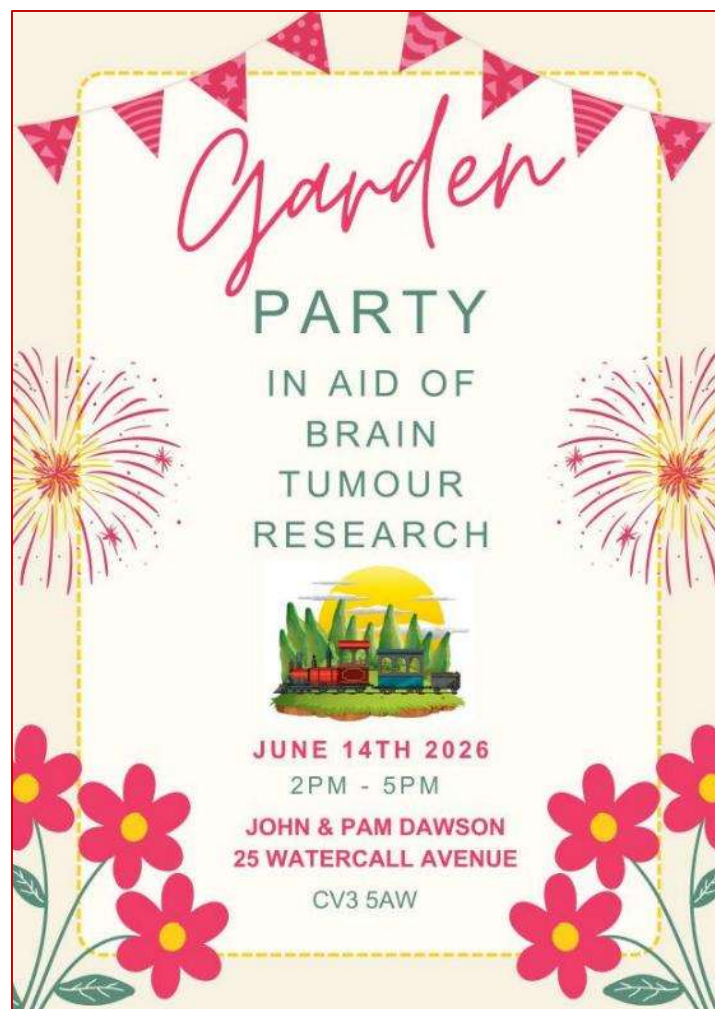

One in three people knows someone affected by a brain tumour. Brain tumours are indiscriminate and can affect anyone at any age. They kill more children and adults under 40 than any other cancers yet only 1% of national spend on cancers goes to the research of this devastating disease.

Brain Tumour Research is the leading voice campaigning to increase national investment into brain tumours to £35m per year and is fundraising to create a national network of seven sustainable research centres of excellence across the UK.

We will be holding a Garden Party on Sunday 14th June from 2pm - 5pm at 25 Watercall Avenue, CV3 5AW to support this charity, to which you are most welcome. The garden railway will be running (weather permitting).

Many thanks
Pam and John Dawson

Social Committee News

Please note that we are sorry that the Midsummer Afternoon Tea has unfortunately been cancelled, as we do not have sufficient helpers for the day due to other commitments.

Holiday at Home: The leaflets and registration forms are now available for Holiday at Home, and the limited places for the trip to Birmingham Botanical Garden are gradually being taken up. Please see one of the Social Committee for more information or speak to Kevin to register and pay for both the trip and activity days.

Helpers Required: We need helpers for Holiday at Home, to support both the work in the kitchen, serving refreshments and meals on Monday and Wednesday, as well as helping with the different craft activities. We would be grateful for any help you can give from a couple of hours to the two full days. A form will be put on the table for you to sign indicating what help you are able to give.

We appreciate and thank those who can support us on the activity days.

Dates for your diary

- Sunday 12th July: Family BBQ after the morning service
- Monday – Wednesday 3rd – 5th August: Holiday at Home, including a day trip to Birmingham Botanical Gardens
- Sunday 27th September: Harvest Bring and Share Lunch after the morning service
- Saturday 31st October: Christian Aid Soup Lunch, from 12 noon – 1.30pm

More information will be given in due course.

We look forward to seeing you at our events and thank you for your support.

Sarah, Liz, Pauline, Chris and Pam

Well-dressing in Derbyshire - May to September

Derbyshire is known for its wells and well-dressing. The annual tradition followed in many villages of decorating the village wells, or 'well-dressing', attracts sightseers from miles away.

By ancient, centuries-old tradition, five wells are decorated. Boards are set up around each one which are then covered in clay. The clay is then impressed with thousands of colourful flower petals to create pictures and tableaux. Often the stories illustrated are from the Bible.

It is thought the practice may date back to the 14th Century, and it may have started as an act of thanksgiving when the community escaped the devastation of the Black Death. Over the years, and before piped water became available, it also became an act of thanksgiving for the village's supply of clean, clear water.

Today more than 80 Derbyshire villages still follow the tradition, and the season extends through the summer. Many wells have a biblical theme, or are inspired by royal occasions or sporting events.

Generally, the Derbyshire wells are not considered holy or named after saints. Most were just the original village water tap. However, Buxton does have a celebrated holy well, where people regularly line up to collect its special waters.

Buxton mineral water is bottled and available in supermarkets, but in the town itself, at St Anne's well, it is free. Throughout medieval times there was a chapel on the spot, and pilgrims came seeking cures and to leave offerings.

Henry VIII put an end to the practice, but later the town became a spa and patients heard of the therapeutic reputation of the waters and came to bathe and drink, much as the ancient Romans had done in pre-Christian times. Today the free Buxton water emerges from a pipe set in a modern plinth containing a statuette of St Anne, the mother of Mary and Jesus's grandmother.

NEWS IN BRIEF FROM AROUND THE UK AND BEYOND

Look out for “Show Your Stripes Day” this month which raises an awareness of climate change using stripes. Stripes are easy to understand because they have no numbers and no words, just colour. Each coloured stripe represents the average temperature for a single year: blue for cooler years with red for warmer. Ed Hawkins, a scientist at the University of Reading, came up with the idea in 2018 to visualise global warming that anyone could understand. 21st June 2025 was the hottest day, being 33.2°C at Charlwood near Gatwick, with Aldergrove in Northern Ireland having its hottest night – 18.2°C.

On 10 June 2026 it will be 100 years since the death of Antoni Gaudi, the architect of Barcelona’s Sagrada Familia, the world’s longest-running large building construction, which is slowly nearing completion with the 163m Jesus Christ tower just being completed. The final facade, the Glory Facade depicting eternal life, will take at least another decade.

The Greek Government will be banning, by law, children under 15 years from using social media from 1 January 2027.

Recent research has found we have four million more dogs in the UK than previously thought, now 13 million. Also, life expectancy for dogs is rising thanks in part to better nutrition and a better understanding of the benefits of lower-impact activities like mental enrichment over high-impact exercise (just like its owners!). Sales of aids such as dog strollers, ramps for stairs or sofas have also increased.

Croatia has become landmine free after a three-decade clearance campaign costing more than £1 billion. More than 107,000 landmines and 470,000 pieces of unexploded ordnance have been safely removed since the country signed up to the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention in 1997.

The best-selling author Freida McFadden (six million book sales in the USA) has announced that her real name is Sara Cohen. In 2025 she sold 2.6 copies in the UK of her books such as The Housemaid, second to The Gruffalo author Julia Donaldson.

More than 70,000 motorists have been fined for using their phones while driving over the past three years, costing them a collective total of £14 million. It is illegal to use a phone even when stopped at traffic lights or in a stationary queue.

Remembering John Constable

It was 250 years ago, on 11th June 1776, that John Constable, British landscape artist, was born.

Widely known as a painter in the Romantic tradition, Constable had a deeply conservative faith centred on the Church of England, which he viewed as an essential stabilising force in society. His painting of Salisbury Cathedral is regarded as a symbol of this.

Born in East Bergholt, Suffolk, to a wealthy corn merchant who owned Flatford Mill, he was expected to take over the business: although he was the second son, the eldest was regarded as incapable. But John Constable was always focused on painting, and the business was eventually taken over by his younger brother.

Constable enjoyed painting the areas he knew well – primarily those on the border of Suffolk and Essex which is now known as Constable Country. “Painting is but another word for feeling,” he wrote to a friend. He regarded nature as a reflection of God’s creation and his own work as spiritual, though a tour of the Lake District in 1806 did not convince him of the attraction of mountains.

He is now highly valued, but he was never successful financially in his own lifetime, though he was elected to the Royal Academy at the age of 52. He was more popular in France than in England, but refused invitations to travel to promote his work, saying he would rather be a poor man in England than a rich man abroad.

After the death through tuberculosis of his wife Maria Bicknell at the age of 41, Constable became depressed: it had been a love match that triumphed over opposition from her wealthy relatives, and he was left a widower with seven young children. He continued to paint, but in a different style, darker and semi-abstract, but still compelling.

Warwick Road Centre and Café - June Update

As I type this report there has been, within five minutes, hail, wind, rain, blue sky and brilliant sunshine – four seasons in one day. Yes, the British Summer is nearly upon us.

This is my penultimate update for Warwick Road Centre for our Connections Magazine. It's an opportune time for me to thank Claire for all her work in producing this magazine in such an efficient and timely manner.

Life at Warwick Road Centre is as busy as ever with room hire and Open Doors Café maintaining a high level of 'busyness.'

Planning for the upgrading works in the kitchen has continued and work will be carried out in the next few weeks. Our kitchen has not had major investment for 20 years and has been kept immaculately by Clare and her team. It has become tired and it is great that money will be spent to give it a spruce up.

In my 15 years in this job, I've seen many changes, not least the closure of Warwick Road URC and the consequent merger with West Orchard URC, thus creating the new Baginton Road URC. One of my parting shots is to encourage all involved in the ongoing management of this new church to work together to grow God's kingdom. We have so many committed folks involved in our church and our church centre and what a fabulous asset they all are.

Trevor Gay, Warwick Road Centre Manager

Smiles - Some of the Great Questions of Life

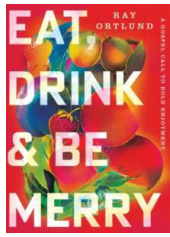

Why is abbreviated such a long word?

Why is it that when you tell a man there are 400 billion stars he will believe you, but when you tell him there's wet paint, he has to touch it?

If your supermarket has been lowering prices every day, how come nothing is free yet?

Do you find it unnerving that what doctors do is called 'practice'?

Book Reviews

Eat, Drink, and Be Merry – a Gospel Call to Bold Enjoyment

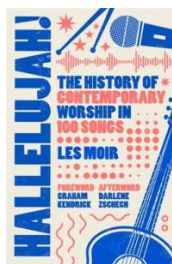

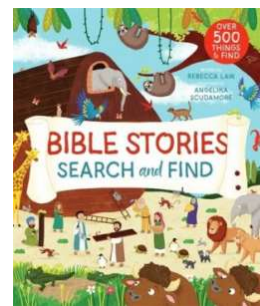

By Raymond C Ortlund, Crossway, £12.99

So much is going wrong in these dark days. And the daily personal demands never let up. Who has the time—much less the freedom of heart—to play, to laugh, to delight? But God’s strategy for wise living includes bold enjoyment. In fact, any ‘Christianity’ that feels embarrassed about enjoying God’s good gifts dishonours Him, and leaves Christians with less to give their suffering world. Meditating on Ecclesiastes 11:9-10, Ortlund argues that following Christ here in this world is a nuanced mix of both suffering and happiness.

Bible Stories Search and Find

By Rebecca Law, SPCK, £9.99

The book is a helpful introduction to the Bible for children ages 6-9. Youngsters will have fun searching for the more than 500 hidden objects across 20 fantastically illustrated scenes, while learning key stories from God’s Word. This interactive Bible storybook could be an exciting way for your children to engage with the Bible while developing concentration and biblical knowledge.

Hallelujah! – The History of Contemporary Worship in 100 Songs

By Les Moir, SPCK, £19.99

From How Great Thou Art to The Blessing, Hallelujah invites you on a journey through 100 of the world’s most beloved worship songs – songs that have shaped church life and personal devotion over the last 50 years.

Inside, you’ll find the full lyrics to each song, along with the remarkable stories behind them: how they were written, what inspired them, and why they continue to resonate with worshippers around the world. Whether you’re rediscovering old favourites or exploring new ones, this book will deepen your appreciation for the songs that move your soul.

Each song entry also features a QR code, giving you instant access to:

- Classic and contemporary performances on YouTube
- Printable chord charts for every song, perfect for musicians and worship leaders

More than a songbook, Hallelujah is a companion for anyone who wants to understand, play, and live the worship they love.

Mary was the virgin mother of Jesus. Her visit to Elizabeth, when both were pregnant, is a moving account of two humble, ordinary women, suddenly caught up in a great event that would shape world history. Their trusting faith in God and acceptance of His will, shines through. After Jesus is born, Mary makes few appearances: when the family visits Jerusalem and she loses her Son on the way home; when she urges Him to help the wedding party in Cana with its wine problem; and when Jesus gives her into the keeping of the beloved disciple when He is dying on the cross. Mary's last appearance is in Acts, just before Pentecost. Mary, chosen to be the mother of Jesus Christ, one who is both God and Man, holds a unique place in history. Down the centuries that have followed, the Church has paid special honour to Mary – and well deserved it is. "All generations shall call me blessed..."
